

MAY & COMPANY PARTNER GRADUATES LEADERSHIP BOOTCAMP

Nathan Cummins, CPA learns Naval Academy Leadership Skills

Vicksburg, MS, December, 2010 – Nathan Cummins, CPA, a partner with May & Company, has completed an intensive Leadership Boot Camp.

The Academy Leadership Boot Camp uses leadership principles developed at West Point and the Naval Academy. Graduation is based on successful completion of a comprehensive three-day course that helps executives develop and articulate their own personal leadership philosophy statements. This becomes the Leader's Compass which forms the foundation for leadership development and keeps the leader on a course that is true to his beliefs.

Cummins joined May & Company in 2004. As a partner, he oversees accounting, auditing and tax related engagements, specializing in construction/contractor accounting. Nathan attended Mississippi State University receiving a Bachelor of Professional Accountancy degree and Masters in Taxation.

Nathan lives in Clinton, MS. He serves as a Donor Investments Auditor of the United Way of Vicksburg-Warren County. Nathan is also a member of the MSU Alumni Association, MSCPA, and AICPA. He is an active member of Parkway Baptist Church in Clinton, MS and treasurer of the Vicksburg Art Association.
