MAY & COMPANY LLP NAMED A BEST COMPANY TO WORK FOR BY MBJ FOR SECOND YEAR

Survey Ranks Firms on Criteria Focused on Employee Satisfaction

Vicksburg, Mississippi, July, 2011 –May & Company, LLP, a leading CPA firm founded in 1922, with offices in Vicksburg, Tallulah, Lake Providence, and Millport, AL, was named as one of the “Best Places to Work in Mississippi” by the Mississippi Business Journal for the second year in a row. The award is given annually to honor those organizations that invest heavily in their employees and work environment.

May & Company placed third in the small business category. Twenty-three firms ranked among small, medium, large, and mega-large sized businesses.

The MBJ created the “Best Places to Work” program in 2005 to recognize companies that retain employees through safe, productive and friendly work environments. May & Company employees were surveyed on different aspects of their work environment, from benefits and pay to job satisfaction and commitment to the firm. May & Company placed runner-up in the small business category for all of Mississippi. H. Riley Nelson, CPA and partner at May & Company commented, “We are honored to receive this award again this year. We are committed to the fact that our success is largely based upon the hard work and dedication of our employees.”
